

the agenda

In Case You Missed It...

Vice President & Chief Content Director Tyler Davidson traveled to Saratoga, Calif., in mid-September to attend the 100th anniversary gala celebration of Hakone Estate & Gardens, one of the oldest Japanese gardens of its type in the Western Hemisphere. Also on the tour were the event-friendly offerings of Cooper-Garrod Estate Vineyards, The Mountain Winery and Montalvo Arts Center, with an overnight at the Inn at Saratoga, conveniently located in its charming downtown.

Meetings Today's Director of Strategic Content Lon Tenney recently headed up to Napa, Calif., for the Masters Winemaker Dinner with Arkenstone Vineyards and The Meritage Resort and Spa. Set on the gorgeous vineyard terrace at The Meritage, the delicious evening was complemented by live music, an artist painting landscape scenes and an only-in-Wine-Country sunset. Check out the Napa/Sonoma section of the November issue for a sidebar on the group event.

ASAE's Annual Meeting & Exposition, held Aug. 13-16 in Salt Lake City, featured all of the excitement and excellent conference content the "association of associations" is known for. From the buzz of the exhibit floor to informative speakers and educational programming—and the requisite splashy opening and closing celebrations bookending the proceedings—Meetings Today kept busy in all manner of endeavors.

FOR MORE COVERAGE

Check out www.MeetingsToday.com/EventGallery for more details and images of the recent events and accolades we've enjoyed.

