

Mr. Todd Bidwell

Universities Space Research Association
Vice President, Finance and Administration
Chief Financial Officer

An experienced executive skilled in government contracting, corporate restructuring, mergers & acquisitions, and financial planning and analysis, Todd Bidwell is responsible for providing ongoing finance and administrative leadership for USRA. In this role he also oversees the overall fiscal performance of the organization.

Prior to joining USRA, he was Vice President, Finance, Diebold, Inc., where he served as the chief finance and accounting executive for a $1.5 B operating segment focused on services, software, and hardware solutions for banking and retail customers.

Before joining Diebold in 2014, Mr. Bidwell worked at Lockheed Martin for nearly nine years where he was responsible for strategic planning and implementation, financial reporting, developing and executing new business models, financial planning and analysis, project management, and audit reviews with external auditors.

Prior to that he was at the Marriott Corporation in Bethesda for 15 years where he was in charge of financial planning and analysis.

Mr. Bidwell holds an M.B.A. from John Carroll University and a B.S.B.A. from Ohio Northern University.

