

FAST FACTS 2025

Carilion Clinic is a nationally recognized health system advancing the health of our communities and the nation through comprehensive patient care, education, and research. With a network of 7 hospitals, more than 250 physician practices, and a range of health and wellness services, Carilion cares for residents of Virginia and surrounding states. Partnerships with premier institutions like Virginia Tech and Radford University help us train tomorrow's clinicians, discover new treatments and techniques, and enhance patient care.
