Grant Paullo

Regional Vice President, Central Region
BMW of North America

Grant moves into his new role after six years as the Regional Sales Manager in the Eastern and Central Regions where he partnered with the dealers to set record sales for both regions.

Grant has been with the BMW Group in the US market for more than 25 years, beginning his career with BMW at BMW Financial Services in 2001. Moving to BMW of North America in 2005, where he has held several leadership roles across Network Development, Aftersales and Sales both in field and staff roles.

In his new role, Grant will report to Tom Shanley, Executive Vice President of Operations at BMW of North America. He will leverage his broad experience and proven leadership in sales and marketing to partner with the central region dealers to drive continued growth in both Sales and Aftersales.

# #