

Monsoon favourites

Booking.com, which connects travellers with a wide choice of places to stay, has taken stock of the top booked destinations by Indian travellers during the 2018 monsoon – July to September. Southeast Asia and Europe have proven to be big draw cards with Dubai, Bangkok and Singapore being the top three most popular international destinations by Indian travellers, followed by last quarter's toppers London and Paris. On the domestic front, most Indian travellers celebrated the rains in New Delhi, Mumbai, Bengaluru, Chennai and Hyderabad – these cities were the top booked domestic destinations. Maharashtra, Tamil Nadu, Delhi (NCR region), Karnataka and Kerala were the popular states booked by Indians this monsoon.

According to Booking.com, the fastest-growing international destinations booked by Indian travellers are St Petersburg, Moscow, Doha, Istanbul, Ubud, Tokyo, Abu Dhabi, Shanghai, Guangzhou, and Ho Chi Minh City.
