‘Indian travellers prefer unique spot to traditional’

WITH 2019 AROUND the corner, Goreme in Turkey has topped the bucket list of Indian travellers followed by Kiev in Ukraine, a report has revealed. According to a Booking.com report almost half of the Indian travellers said their main motivation for travelling in 2019 is to escape from normal life (47%). In 2019, over two-thirds of Indian travellers would like to do something unique, including visiting a destination that none of their friends have been to (68%) while over a quarter of them said they prefer unique and quirky accommodation (27%) over more traditional places, it added.
